VOL. CXXXIV—No. 94. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, SATURDAY, APRIL 20, 1918. PRICE ONE CENT.

ONLY TWO PER CENT OF RESIDENTS OF CITY HAVE PURCHASED THIRD LIBERTY BONDS

Fear is Expressed that the Business Men and Citizens Generally Do Not Realize Importance of the Situation—Meeting to be Held Monday to Consider Measures to Stimulate Sale.

A CALL TO VIRGINIANS.

The following call from Governor George J. Seay, of the Fifth Federal reserve bank at Richmond and chairman of the war loan organization for this district, was received today by Chairman Leo P. Harlow, of the local Liberty Loan Committee:

VIRGINIANS!

Our Blood Brothers are Fighting With Their "Backs to the Wall."

Their cry to the French is: "To Me!" "To Me!"

The cry of the French to us is: "Hurry! Hurry! Hurry!"

Field Marshall Haig has given the order: "Every position must be held to the last man. There must be no retirement." Yet by weight of numbers they are being pushed back. They are falling, falling by thousands. Too weary to stand, yet they stand by the triumph of the spirit, and yield up their lives to hold back the Hun. They fight for US, and they depend upon US to send them help. And our boys who go over, we must sustain them. It calls for our money.

The bond campaign in Virginia is not going as it should. This is a call upon the workers to make it known, and push the knowledge home that this is a fight of every American—man, woman and child. Soon the backs of our boys may be to the wall, for they are now being thrown into the fight.

The people everywhere are not aroused—they do not show it by subscriptions.

We should and must have 200,000 subscriptions in Virginia—one out of ten. The country is calling for 15,000,000 subscribers. In the last campaign there were only 85,000 in Virginia, and in many counties not one out of 100 subscribed.

VIRGINIANS ARE ON TRIAL!

Respectfully,

GEORGE J. SEAY, Chairman.

The Liberty Loan committee of Alexandria checked up the liberty loan lists today and found that only two per cent of the people had bought bonds. This means that only one in fifty persons has responded to the call of the nation for every one that can afford to buy a bond out of money already possessed or out of future savings to do so. The campaign is now half over, and only 359 people in this growing and prosperous city have heeded the patriotic call of President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo to back up the soldiers of America and the allies that are now in the trenches.

Because of the apparent lack of enthusiasm among the people as shown by their neglect in buying bonds, an important meeting of the Liberty Loan executive committee has been called for Monday morning at 10 o'clock to take measures to stimulate the sale of bonds.

This meeting will also take up the question of having a big bond selling day at Camp Humphries. A committee of thirty was scheduled to go there this afternoon but it was called off because of the rain.

The fear is expressed that the business men and citizens generally do not realize the importance of Alexandria making a fine showing in the campaign at this time. At the meeting Monday measures may be taken to drive home to the people of the city that when the government calls upon the people to buy bonds that it is their duty to do so. The government wants from 15,000,000 to 20,000,000 bond buyers in this campaign for the moral effect it will have. It will spread terror to Germany and her allies for it will mean that America is in the war to a finish. It will strengthen the hearts of the French and British soldiers who are now with their "backs to the wall."

PRESIDENT RIDES IN TANK.

Big War Machine Lumbers Up The Avenue To Visit Him.

Washington, April 20.—President Wilson rode around the White House grounds yesterday in the British Army fighting tank Britannia, which was brought here from Buffalo for use in the Liberty Loan campaign. The tank attracted wide attention as it lumbered up Pennsylvania avenue to the White House.

The President first crawled through a small hole in the side of the tank and thoroughly inspected its working parts. Then the tank was closed and the President was taken for a short ride through the White House grounds. In climbing out the President grasped a hot pipe and burned his hand slightly. The burn, is was said afterwards, was not serious.

Buy Liberty Bonds.

This is Spring, which is the beginning of life and happiness. Let's spring a surprise on the kaiser, who is the mortal enemy of life and happiness, by oversubscribing the Third Liberty Bond issue.

No American has a right to interfere with production or the destination of products from this country. The resources of the country belong to Liberty. Liberty has the first call upon the manhood and womanhood of the nation, and upon all the products that are needed to STRIKE DOWN and ANNIHILATE the ENEMY.

BUY LIBERTY BONDS.

AUSTRIAN SITUATION.

Marked Discontent Reigns in Vienna, While Political Groups Lash Germany.

Washington, D. C., April 20.—The political situation in Austria-Hungary remains extremely delicate, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland, summarizing reports from Budapest and comment in Austrian and German newspapers. Austria, the dispatch said, is coming to the greatest difficulties; security no longer exists and the situation "is capable of any possibility."

Marked discontent reigns in Vienna according to the dispatch, while speeches delivered in Parliament by the Czechs, Jugo-Slavs and Poles inspire hatred of Germany and demand reoganization of Austro-Hungary. Even the Social Democrats are said to have proclaimed in the Austrian Chamber of Deputies that the monarchy is not directly interested in the struggle of Germany against Great Britain, France and America.

Something over $6,000 worth of the various issues of Liberty Loan bonds have been purchased by the several Masonic bodies in Alexandria. The total amount bought by individual members of the order in the city would probably be many times that sum. In the addresses delivered by Grand Master E. L. Cunningham and Past Master James Austin Cabell, at the joint meeting of Alexandria Washington and Andrew Jackson lodges on Thursday night, the fraternity was especially urged to buy the bonds as largely as possible.

The following named colored registrants have been ordered by the Alexandria city and county draft board to report in this city on Friday next, April 26th, at 9:47 o'clock for entrainment to Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va: John Gillum, David Alexander, Dump Morrison, Clarence Pye, Aubrey Washington, George Robinson, Samuel Sutton, Harrison Sommerville, Harry Shackelford, George McDaniel, Eugene T. 1,300,000 FRENCHMEN KILLED.

Almost as Many Wounded or Prisoners, Tardieu Says.

New York, April 20.—France in four years of conflict to preserve her own liberty and that of the world, according to Andre Tardieu, French High Commissioner to the United States, has lost 1,300,000 men killed and almost as many wounded or prisoners. The high toll exacted by the war was made public by the noted French envoy yesterday in an address at a meeting of the Fatherless Children of France Association.

Praising the work of the organization, which has already raised more than $2,000,000 in behalf of 50,000 French war orphans, and stating that the French Government has adopted 1,000,000 children bereft of fathers, M. Tardieu declared that German propaganda could not counteract the fact, well known in America, that "all our hearts are united in a common affection."

All those who received invitations to the last dance of this organization are included in the list of these dances, and can call at 722 King street and receive their card.

The services in Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow morning will conducted by the pastor, the Rev. A. E. Speilman, whose subject will be "Slay Utterly." Mr. Reese gave an address describing some of his experiences "over there." Mr. Reese, at the urgent request of the association, has agreed to give on Monday night at 8 o'clock in Christ Church Parish Hall a camp "sing." He will lead the audience in a number of the camp songs and there will be leaflets distributed with the words of the songs on them, or the words will be thrown on canvass by the stereopticon. IRISH UNREST INCREASES.

Situation More Serious, as Use of Force Against Conscription Likely

London, April 20.—The Irish situation, as created by the speedy parliamentary action on the man-power bill, which provides for conscription in Ireland, is assuming a more and more serious aspect.

As yet no disturbances of consequence have occurred, but throughout the country the murmur of defiance is growing loud, and opposition is being swiftly organized with a view to meeting force with force when conscription goes into effect.

A powerful impetus to the spirit and organization of this opposition has been given by the action of the Catholic hierarchy in passing this resolution:

"Conscription is being forced upon the Irish, and we have the right to resist by any means within God's law."

At the same time the Irish sentiment was kindled into increased defiance by a manifesto issued jointly by the Irish Nationalist party, Sinn Fein and Irish labor leaders saying, in part:

"Acceptance of conscription means the surrender of our liberties and the acknowledgement of ourselves as slaves."

King George has approved the man-power bill.

The Nationalist conference at Dublin continues to discuss a plan of action in case conscription is enforced. Resistance to the utmost is threatened by the leaders.

The Allison W. C. T. U. will visit the almshouse tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 and hold a prayer service.

An examination will be held in this city on May 11th by the civil service commission to fill the position of elevator man at the postoffice building in this city. The salary is $720 per annum.

The Old Dutch Market Company of Washington, has leased the M. Shuler Beef Company's place at 1004 King street, this city, for a term of five years and will open a store there in about a month or so.

In the Methodist Protestant Church tomorrow morning the Rev. Raymond W White's subject will be "When a Bear is not a Bear." At the evening service, at 8 o'clock the Rev L. F. Warner, president of the Maryland Conference, will preach. The public is invited to all services.

The Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison conducted the burial service yesterday afternoon of the late Mr. Thomas Pollard Barclay, a cartoonist of the Baltimore Sun for many years. Mr. Barclay was the son of the late Rev. T. P. Barclay, a prominent Presbyterian minister of this state. Burial was in Bethel cemetery, this city.

The funeral of the late Rev. Frank Page, D. D., rector of Zion Episcopal Church, Fairfax, Va., whose death has been announced in the Gazette, took place at that church this morning at 11 o'clock. Bishop Coadjutator Brown, of the diocese of Virginia, had a short and appropriate service for the family in the rectory before the body was removed to the church. The service in the church was in charge of the Rev. Dr. A. B. Kinsolving, of St. Paul's Church, Baltimore. He was assisted by the Revs. Professors Green, Bell and Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, near this city. The committal at the grave was read by Dr. Page's classmate, the Rev. Dr. Phillips of this city, and the rest of this part of the service was read by Dr. Kinsolving. Notwithstanding the inclement weather there was a large attendance of sorrowing parishioners and friends. Among the other clergymen in attendance were Dr. Page's classmates the Rev. Dr. Bryan, of Petersburg, Va., and the Rev. W. B. Lee, of Gloucester county, Va. The Revs. Mr. Buck, of Washington and R. Allen Castleman, of Falls Church, were also present.

MUSICAL PROGRAM.

Choir of St. Paul's Episcopal Church to Render "Messiah Victorious" Tomorrow Night.

As announced the choir of St. Paul's church will sing, at the evening service tomorrow, Hammond's "Messiah Victorious." This beautiful cantata is especially appropriate for the Easter season. In the preface to this work the Rev. James M. Farrar, D. D., who selected the words for this cantata, writes as follows:

The beautiful lilies and joyful anthems of Easter bring a personal message to every faithful follower of the risen Saviour Each year, on the anniversary of His resurrection, many Christians, specially those who have been bereaved, assemble in God's house to rejoice in their assurance of immortality, and in the prayer and promise of song to pledge a renewed consecration to the crucified and risen Christ.

For the discipline of sorrow,
For the angel of distress,
For the unseen hands that drew us
Into greater blessedness;
For the lips that close in silence,
For the strong hands clasped in prayer,
For the strength of heart that suffers,
But sinks not in despair;
For the penitence and patience
That are meek beneath the rod,
And for the body's glad resurrection,
We give Thee thanks, O God!

A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and enjoy this service.

HUNS HALT ATTACKS

Huns Cut to Pieces Against Steel Wall of Allied Resistance.

London, April 20.—"We gained all our objectives at Givenchy and Festubert and re-established our position," Field Marshal reported to day.

"Local enemy attacks occurred southeast of Robecq. In sharp fighting the enemy was driven back."

Washington, April 20.—The German juggernaut which Hindenburg built for his west front drive may prove a Frankenstien that will destroy itself as well as its creators.

This was intimated in a dispatch today from William Philip Simms.

'Hindenburg must strike elsewhere, using many of his precious remaining reserves, if he is unable to advance further in Flanders," Simms cabled.

The huge enemy military machine is encountering a resistance that is battering it to pieces, but Hindenburg dare not stop it. Its progress has been blocked before Amiens and before Hazebrouck, but the German leaders, Simms intimates, can only change its course—even though he may now realize that its human and its mechanical parts are being destroyed under its own impetus.

"On the plains south of Mont Rouge, Mont Moir, and Mont de Cats, von Eberhardt and von Stettin, appar ently, have struck a stone wall," Simms says.

This is borne out by Haig's report that there is a lull in infantry fighting in Flanders. The enemy assaults there are expected to be renewed, but the very fact that Hindenburg was forced to cease his attacks, even for a day, is accepted as showing the desperate straits to which he has been reduced by his terrific loss of man power.

In Picardy the Germans not only are still powerless to advance, but have been pushed back from their nearest approach to Amiens, near Castel.

Henry Wood reports the constant arrival of fresh German divisions from Russia.

It may be significant that most of these new forces are being directed against the French.

TWO MORE IN THE NET.

Negroes Carrying Unlawful Quantities of Whisky Held for the Grand Jury.

W. E. Payne, state prohibition inspector, about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon captured Rudolph and William White, colored, on an incoming electric train on the charge of transporting liquor into the state of Virginia. A third negro, also carrying a suit case said to have contained liquor, left the train at Spring Park station and managed to get away. The inspector later turned his two captives over to Officer Reid, entered an automobile and pursued the negro who had left the train. He was, however, unable to find him.

A special session of the Police Court was held at 7 o'clock. The two darkeys upon being brought before the bar made no attempt to question the officer's statement, and were held for the grand jury.

William Hart, colored, was fined $1 for violating the traffic law.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning.

LIFE SPARED BY LYNCHERS.

Mob Hangs Man Suspected as Disloyal, Then Cuts Him Down.

Collinsville, Okla, April 20.—Henry R. Heimer, suspected of disloyalty, was hanged by a crowd of 50 men here last night, but after he had swung fifteen seconds and had become semi-conscious, the police persuaded the would-be executioners to cut him down on the promise that he would be given a trial by the county council of defense tomorrow.

At the Grand Theater Monday.

Madge Evans and Henry Hull will be seen at the Grand theater Monday night in "The Volunteer." The drama is most fasinating. ITALIANS IN FRANCE

Four Great Nations Now Fighting In The Same Battle Line.

Washington, April 20.—For the first time since the war began troops of the four great allied nations, whose man power is to save civilization from German militarism, are fighting side by side. American, French, British and Italian soldiers are facing a common enemy on the same battlefield. Word to this effect reached Washington yesterday and was given to the world by the Italian Embassy.

French and British troops have fought in Italy; French, British and American troops have fought in France, but until the arrival of the Italians upon the right wing of the united armies the colors of the four powers have never before been known upon the same battle line.

It is not indicated in Washington how many Italians there are in France. It may not be known here how many there are, but the strength of this force is not the most important thing about it, even though it reached a full half a million men. The most important thing is that Italy has sent them. The spirit which prompted this dispatch of Italian troops is one of the finest things in the war to date, every official in Washington agrees. And it is finer from the fact that all has not been well between Italy and her allies during the past two years. The Italians have been resentful of what they believed a degree of indifference on the part of the French and British Governments as to Rome's problems and her plight.

UNLICENSED DOGS.

Owners to be Summoned to Police Court Should They Fail to Pay Taxes.

The police of Alexandria are rounding up unlicensed dogs. Owners who have not secured the requisite license will be reported to the police station and notified to secure medals for their dogs. If the notice is not followed by the payment of the tax and a license taken out dog owners will be summoned into Police Court.

As was stated yesterday, the members of the police force are now engaged in the annual inspection of premises in every section of the city. Where nuisances shall have been found the occupiers of houses will be given ample time to abate the same, but should they neglect to heed the warning delinquents will be arraigned in the Police Court and made to pay the penalty prescribed by law.

The officers are also directed to take an inventory of all dogs found on premises. Delinquents will be made to pay $3.50 instead of $1.50, the usual tax.

NEW JIM CROW BILL

Senator Trammel Would Separate Races on District of Columbia Street Cars.

Senator Trammel, of Florida, yesterday introduced in the Senate a new Jim Crow law for the District of Columbia.

Senator Trammel has stipulated that the bill exclude nurses of either race, attending children or invalids of the other race. It gives conductors or other persons in charge of the cars police power, enabling them to arrest any passenger who deliberately refuses to comply with the act, which says that whites and colored must occupy separate parts of the car.

The bill provides a penalty for failure on the part of the street railways companies to comply with it, of a fine of not more than $500, nor more than six months in jail, or both. The street railway companies may run extra cars or special cars, under this bill, providing for exclusive accommodation of either race.

Conductors who permit white people to sit in seats intended for colored people will, upon conviction, pay a fine of not more that $50, or go to jail for not more than sixty days, or both, the bill provides. The bill is now in the hands of the Senate District Committee.

PEACE RESOLUTIONS.

The history of the German peace resolutions of July 19 last, given in part by Count Reventlow and in part by the Berlin Taegliche Rundschau, confirms the belief that there is no peace sentiment in Germany except that produced by fear of defeat. It is suggested by an exchange that the Socialists have had less confidence in victory since the first year than the military men and the Junkers, but they had voted money for the startling increase of the army in 1913, and they were enthusiastic for the war in 1914, but by 1915 they began to show signs of discouragement.

Last summer, at a secret meeting of the Reichstag, Herr Erzberger, leader of the Centre party, read a letter from Count Czernin to the Emperor Charles, who authorized him to read it, containing this statement: "Austria wants, and in any event must have, peace by the winter of 1917." In compliance with this letter the Centre party joined the Social Democrats and passed the resolutions for peace without annexations or indemnities.

But the Reichstag can't make peace or war. That is the function of the War Lord, whose servant the Chancellor is. Von Bethmann-Hollweg would not commit himself to a peace by agreement or compromise, and was dismissed to gratify the Centre-Socialist combination. Michaelis would not commit himself to it, but tried evasions of various sorts, and after a few months resigned. Before he would take the Chancellorship Hertling consulted the leaders of the Reichstag, and their demands ignored the peace resolutions. Later the Reichstag leaders remembered the peace resolutions and informed Hertling of this, whereupon he threatened to resign, because he is the servant of the Kaiser, who is disposed to have a few more millions of his subjects killed rather than open negotiations for a compromise peace, which the allies had shown not the slightest disposition to consider.

At this threat the leaders of the majority, or militant, Socialists, accepted the Government's program for annexing French territory and the coasts of Flanders and levying large indemnities on the allied nations. With this, evidently, goes the agreement of the Socialists to support the Government for the present, and the promise of Hindenburg to conquer peace by August.

There seems to be no difference between the belligerence of the Socialists and the Kaiser, except that the former are moderately disposed to limit the amount of life to be sacrificed for territory and treasure. That is due to the fact that war does not cost the Kaiser anything, but it involves frightful sacrifices among the Socialists.

PREDATORY HUNS.

If, as it is reported in Washington, the German military chiefs and the Socialist leaders conferred before this drive began, and the latter agreed not to trouble the Government while this offensive was in progress if the casualties did not exceed 1,500,000, then we know how much blood the relatively pacific Germans are willing to give for gold.

As an exchange says, the Germans now that they are ruined, individually and nationally, if they cannot exact huge indemnities from their prostrate foes. The Socialists have been clamoring for peace by compromise, without annexations or indemnities, but the military authorities appear to have convinced them that the financial ruin of the nation will fall most heavily upon the working classes, who constitute pretty much the whole Socialist party, and that the only salvation of German industries is a victory that shall secure indemnities. Hence their reported consent to waive their agitation against the Government provided the expenditure of blood for the sake of getting money shall not exceed the quarter-mil of 1,500,000 casualties.

The report of Hindenburg's conference with the Socialists, which appeared several days ago, fits perfectly into this. It was said that shortly before the drive began Hindenburg was in Berlin, and was confronted by the probability that the Socialists would refuse to vote any more credits to the Government. He overcame this by promising peace by August. This is evidently a part of the negotiation now reported by way of Washington, by the terms of which he will have a free hand to sacrifice German life without stint if the casualties do not run over 1,500,000, in return fro which he promises them peace by August.

And if the 1,500,000 men shall be killed and wounded, and yet Germany shall be as far off as ever from the wealth of America, England and France, what then? Will the Socialists refuse money votes and demand the peace that was promised them? If they do not, they will have to face a fifth war winter, and last fall they were desperate at the prospect of a fourth. The windfall of Russia nerved them for a fourth, but no more windfalls will come their way. There are no more Russias.

GERMAN PUBLICATIONS TO GO.

Would the Huns permit a newspaper to be printed in the English language in Berlin or Germany? Well hardly. Then why permit German newspapers to be printed in German in this country?

The above from the New York Evening Telegram then, as says the Washington Herald, to continue during the war the teaching of German is doing exactly what our enemy, the Germans, desire.

Our boys in khaki were in the first line trenches Thursday. Doubtless many have been killed by the Germans. How can we reconcile this sacrifice with a continuance of or persistence in German propaganda in this country.

The most popular bill ever introduced in Congress would be a bill to make it unlawful for any publication to be printed in the German language. Can any sane person believe for a moment that an English paper would be permitted to circulate in Berlin or in Germany, to say nothing of Germany conniving at its publication. That is exactly what we are doing in this country.

No paper in the English language is allowed or would be allowed for a moment to be published in Germany. The German publications here are undoubtedly spreading German propaganda and stirring up among the people who read them disloyalty to America, their adopted country. They are constantly belittling the part that America and the allies are taking in the war.

There is a shortage of paper on which to print newspapers, magazines, etc., in the English language. The book publishers are curtailing their publications of books because of the shortage, and yet the government is allowing paper to be consumed by publications printed in the language of the nation we are fighting.

Transportation facilities are congested, fuel is short and everybody is called upon to bear their burden of these conditions, and yet transportation of paper to these German publications and of the finished products they serve just so much increase the nation's congestion, shortage of fuel, etc.

VON JAGOW'S TESTIMONY.

In his reply to the memorandum of Prince Lichnowsky, which completely destroyed Germany's pretense of being forced into the war, Herr von Jagow, minister for foreign affairs from 1913 to 1916, says:

"I do not intend to adopt the theory, now widespread among us, that England was the originator of all the intrigues leading to the war. On the contrary, I believe in Sir Edward Grey's love of peace and his genuine desire to arrive at an understanding with us, but he had allowed himself to become too hopelessly entangled in the network of Franco-Russian policy. He could find no way out, and therefore failed to do that which had been in his power to prevent the world war. War was not popular among the English people, therefore Belgium had to serve as a battle cry."

This destroys the German case as completely as the memorandum of the late German ambassador at London, says a contemporary. The German case is that England forced the war because the English people were jealous of German commercial expansion and hated the Germans, and desired to destroy them, and because Edward VII had conspired with France and Russia to compass Germany's destruction, and Sir Edward Grey's peace proposals were insincere, and he designed to bring on the war.

And now not only the former German ambassador to London, but the former German secretary for foreign affairs explodes this whole invention by recognizing the sincerity of Sir Edward's efforts to avert war.

The comment of Captain Persius in the Berlin Tageblat is that "an understanding ought to be easier now that we have heard from the two opposing sources, from von Jagow and Lichnowsky, that England was not responsible for the war, as hitherto has been believed in wide circles in Germany." It there anything left of the German case?

THE KAISER WEEPS.

The kaiser has again visited the fighting front in order to weep over the horrors of warfare there displayed, according to a dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger. "What haven't I done to preserve the world from these horrors?" he is quoted as saying.

The Baltimore Sun recalls the old story of Louis XI and Cardinal Baluc. The latter, for a long time the close friend of the monarch, at length turned traitor, or Louis suspected him of being one, and was imprisoned. Instead of throwing him into a dungeon, however, the king had him locked in a cage, which he thought the cardinal could hardly object to, as he himself had invented it for another. The cage was suspended from the ceiling of a room which was connected by a private passageway with the king's own apartments, and thither Louis came daily to weep over the sad incarceration of the cardinal.

Like his fellow-ruler of four centuries ago, the kaiser weeps over miseries which he himself has inflicted. There is one big difference, however, in the two cases. Louis could have ended the suffering of the cardinal by a movement of his finger. The kaiser has set a Juggernaut in motion which he could not stop now if he would. Eternal infamy is the price he must pay for succumbing to the temptations of ambition and the lust for conquest. No wonder he weeps! No wonder he seeks the coward's refuge of attempting to blame it on others!

KILLS SELF BY WIFE'S SIDE.

Despondent, Albert Seay Send Bullet Into Brain.

Baltimore, April 20.—Sitting on the bed beside his wife, Albert Seay, 48 years old, 4807 Eastern avenue, shot himself through the head yesterday.

Seay had been in poor health for several months and was despondent. He told his wife when he awoke that he was discouraged and sick and thought he would end it all. Getting a pistol from a bureau drawer, he sat on the edge of the bed and pointed the weapon at his head. His wife embraced him and sought to sooothe him. At the same time Seay pulled the trigger and fell to the floor dead.

Who Are You?

Here we have been talking all this while about milk, with never a word as to who we are.

Something over two years ago, we purchased and began the organization and equipment of a farm, then known as "Negley," twenty miles south of Alexandria, on the Potomac, the station of the Washington Southern Railway being on the Farms.

The name "Negley" did not seem very appropriate, so when we heard the story of Captain John Smith's first trip of exploration up the Potomac, of how his party was attacked by Indians right in front of the Farms, and of how his lieutenant, Featherstone, was killed, we decided that Negley should give place to Featherstone Farms, and now the Railway calls its station Featherstone.

The Farms comprise fifteen hundred acres, and the buildings have been planned solely for the production of milk in the most sanitary way possible.

We believe no farm in the United States is better equipped to produce good, clean milk.

Our herd of over 200, comprises nothing but Holstein cows and, for its size, we will match it against any in the country for fine, strong, healthy animals.

We bank in Alexandria. We buy in Alexandria. And when the trains run on time, we are but thirty minutes from Alexandria.

As neighbors and friends, we want Alexandria to have the best milk in Virginia.

That's our milk.

SMALLPOX SPREADING.

Those Not Recently Vaccinated Should Lose No Time Seeking Such Protection.

According to information received by the state department of health, smallpox continues to spread in a large number of counties of Virginia. Fortunately the disease seems generally to be of a mild type, and no deaths have as yet been reported this year. However, there are some cases in which the disease has taken serious turn and all the localities affected will be earnestly urged to take the most energetic steps possible to eradicate the contagion.

Upward of fifty new cases were reported last week. All persons who have not been recently vaccinated should at once seek this the only known means of protection from the disease. While the type does not appear virulent, in any event it is a disease no person willingly will expose himself to, as it means quarantine, serious loss of time, and often very considerable expense. For a few cents protection can be secured, making one practically immune from the disease and certainly from any serious type thereof.

RAP NEW PREMIER.

Count Burian's Appointment as Czernin's Successor Not Approved.

Washington, April 20.—Count Burian's appointment as Austrian premier is received "with more resignation than enthusiasm" in Austria. This is the burden of excerpts of the press of the dual monarchy received here through diplomatic channels yesterday.

German papers express equal dissatisfaction with the endeavor to solve the Austrian crisis. Assurances from Austria, says the Muenchner Neueste Nachrichten, are not enough to calm the distrust of the situation widespread in Germany.

In Austria-Hungary Burian is described as "insignificant and obediently docile to the behests of Berlin and Budapest." In spite of rigorous censorship the Swiss press hears of marked discontent in Vienna.

The Neueste Nachichten, of Munich, admits the critical status of Teuton internal affairs.

"Plots have been fomented against the alliance" (between Germany and Austria) the paper declares. "These would never have been possible had not the internal situation given the opportunity."

"We know that large sections of the population," the paper continues, "are in sympathy with the entente. The Czechs, Jugo-Slavs and Poles breathe hatred of Germany. The Social Democrats themselves (in Austria) proclaim that they have no interest in a struggle of Germany against England, France and the United States. " The declarations of the monarch and the protestations of the minister are not sufficient to reassure and to calm us."

The political situation in Austria-Hungary remains extremely delicate, according to an official dispatch from Switzerland summarizing reports from Budapest and comment in Austrian and German newspapers. Austria, the dispatch said, is coming to the greatest difficulties; security no longer exists and the situation "is capable of any possibility."

Marked discontent reigns in Vienna, according to the dispatch, while speeches delivered in parliament by the Czechs, Jugo-Slavs and Poles inspire hatred of Germany and demand reorganization of Austro-Hungary.

The great flow of wounded now passing through Flanders is viewed with alarm by the Germans, as related in an official dispatch from Amsterdam yesterday.

The towns of Courtrai, Bruges, Ghent and other places have been transformed into military hospitals, the dispatch said, adding that at the front arrangements are inadequate and the Red Cross service is not able to fulfill its task.

Many wounded, it was said, are dying in Red Cross automobiles and wagons and on sanitary trains.

CURTAILS GAS SUPPLY.

Coal Situation in Danville Relieved, But Hands Not Available for Necessary Work at Plant.

Danville,Va., April 19.—Shortage in labor at the city gas works yesterday resulted in the supply being less than the demand. At noon when housewives began cooking dinner the pressure was so low that little headway could be made. The city gas office was bombarded with telephone calls, and complainants were told that labor conditions were the root of the trouble and that better pressure would be insured for today.

Three times in three weeks have the wages of negro hands been raised at the plant. Hands will work a few days and work half the week, thus making a standardized supply of gas uncertain. The present high wages paid to the negroes is largely responsible for the condition.

Two carloads of coal came yesterday and the electric light plant crisis was passed for a week at least.

ASKS SIX MONTHS TO LIVE.

Clemenceau Has Himself Examined To See if He Will Last That Long.

New York, April 20.—"Tell me frankly if I can continue for the next six months in that devil-of-a-way existence I carry on now; six months is all I want?" Premier Clemenceau of France, who is seventy-seven years old, told an army surgeon-major when he asked for thorough physical examination recently.

This remark was attributed to the Premier in a dispatch from Paris given out here by the official French bureau of information.

"You have more than six months ahead of you," the surgeon replied, after the examination.

The dispatch stated that the Premier on arriving at his office last Thursday morning asked to see a surgeon, and removed his coat, vest and shirt. After the doctor's verdict, Clemenceau dressed and plunged immediately into his work.

BIRTHS NOT BEING REPORTED

Apparent Decrease in Birth Rate in Virginia Caused by Failure to Comply With Law.

Richmond, April 20. — If statistics are to be taken at their face value there has been a marked reduction in the birth rate in Virginia this year as compared with the early months of 1917.

For the months of January and February, 1918, there were reported to the State Bureau of Vital Statistics 1,070 fewer births than in the corresponding months of the previous year. However, no one in Virginia, much less the well-informed officials of this important branch of the State Department of Health, believes there has been any falling off in the number of births in the state this year.

What is believed to be true is that numerous physicians and midwives are failing to comply with the law requiring prompt reports of all births. The value of these reports have been remarkably demonstrated, especially in the past few years in proving not only the age but the citizenship of persons whose vital interests were affected when these fundamental facts became subject of legal inquiry. Parents should require prompt compliance with the law in this important matter, the State Department of Health declares.

Dr. W. A. Plecker, chief of the bureau of vital statistics and state registrar, says that he laid much of the failure to report to the fact that many hundreds of the most active physicians had gone to the war, and many of those who were filling the places of the absent doctors excused their failure to comply with the law on the plea that they were already overburdened with work. Dr. Plecker regards this excuse in the nature of slacking.

CHICAGO FEARS ICE FAMINE

Hospitals and Private Homes Supplied First, Dealers Agree.

Chicago, April 20—Ice will be served to Chicago hotels and saloons only after hospitals and private homes have been supplied. This agreement has been reached by Chicago ice dealers, it is announced by John P. Boyle, Chicago secretary of the National Association of Ice Industries. The agreement also includes a provision that 50 cents a hundred is to be the maximum price charged hospitals and private consumers, although the price charged hotels and saloons may go higher in the event of a serious ice famine.

"More than 70 per cent of Chicago ice plants are shut down because there is a shortage of 80,000 tons of ammonia this year, and dealers are buying at cost from those remaining open," said Secretary Boyle. "The Government is trying to meet this shortage by building unit ammonia plants and has appropriated $10,000,000 for that purpose, but the first of these plants will not be completed before August 1, and will not relieve this year's shortage to any great extent."

HINT AT A SWISS BELGIUM.

Invasion Covertly Threatened as Feature of Drive Against Italy.

Geneva, April 20.—The latest German and Austro-Hungarian newspaper received in Switzerland continues to speak of the coming Tueton offensive against Italy. The most serious note comes from the Vossische Zeitung, of Berlin, which says:

"During the spring Switzerland will see her neutrality exposed to the greatest and hardest proof, especially when Austro-German troops pass from the defensive."

Guards in prison camps in the Rhine towns have been so reduced because every German is wanted in the west, that escapes across the Rhine river into Switzerland are becoming more frequent daily. One American and three English soldiers who escaped from German camps this week and have arrived at Berne, and nineteen Frenchmen, former prisoners, joyously marched through the strects of Geneva. All the former captives say the Germans are hiding their losses in the offensive on the western front, and add that Germany is on the verge of starvation. Chocolate, they say, cost two pounds sterling (nearly $10) per kilogram, while soap fetches 30 francs ($6) a pound.

MEAT RIOT IN VIENNA.

People, Unable to Get Horseflesh, Storm Butchers' Stalls.

Zurich, April 20.—Vienna newspapers report serious rioting in the meat market there on Sunday. Ten thousand people demanded meat, but only 1,000 kilograms was available.

They then demanded horseflesh and when none was forthcoming they stormed thee meat stalls. The police were summoned and cleared the hall. Many arrests were made.

OPEN-AIR PORTS BLAMED.

Cunard Company Tries Case to Be Relieved of $6,000,000 Liability in Loss of The Lusitania.

New York, April 20.—Open-air ports on the lower decks of the Lusitania were largely responsible for the ultimate loss of the ship after she had been hit by a German torpedo, in the opinion of Frederick J. Gauntlett, one of the surviving passengers, who testified Thursday in the proceedings brought by the Cunard Steamship Company to be relieved of liability in connection with damage suits amounting to $6,000,000.

Describing the occurrences immediately following the shock of the torpedo, Mr. Gauntlett said that the ship listed badly, but seemed to be "holding well," and he did not believe she would sink. He thought the torpedo had entered No 1 and 2 holds, and believed that if the damage had been limited to these holds or even to three holds, the vessel would have floated.

HEALTHFUL WORDS

From an Alexandria Citizen.

Is your back lame and painful?
Does it ache especially after exertion?
Is there a soreness in the kidney region?
These symptoms suggest weak kidneys.
If so there is danger in delay.
Weak kidneys get fast weaker.
Give your trouble prompt attention.
Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.
Your neighbors use and recommend them.
Read this Alexandria testimony.

Mrs. Milton Moore, 123 Duke St., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a household medcine for kidney trouble in our family. I have taken them on several occasions for backache and other kidney disorders with very beneficial results. I am quite sure that Doan's Kidney Pills will help anybody who gives them a good trial. I know they are a medicine of merit."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SHELL KILLS NINE WOMEN.

Paris Workers in Factary Victims of Hun Bombardment.

Paris, April 20.—Nine women and two men among Tuesday's casualties due to the long range bombardment of Paris were killed by a shell falling in a courtyard outside a workshop. When the shell exploded, a fragment passed through a glass wall between the court and the shop where the women were working. The panic which ensued was quickly calmed. The factory was equipped with first aid appliances and within half an hour all the injured had been taken to the hospital.

Work was resumed yesterday morning at the factory with all the women employes except those who were wounded. Another shell fell in the middle of a barge on the river, cutting it in two. The crew dived overboard and escaped unhurt.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side...

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists. NC-128

ALLIED ARMIES.

British Claim Seven Million, Five Hundred Thousand in Field at Present.

New York, April 19. — The British empire, at the beginning of April had 7,500,000 men in the service of the army and navy, according to official figures here yesterday. Of this number 4,530,000, or 64.4 per cent, are from England.

The dominions and colonies have furnished 900,000 men, 12 per cent of the force, while little Scotland has 620,000 men in service—one man for every seven and one-half of her population.

In proportion to the population, England has one in 7.5 in service; Wales one in 10,2; the dominions, one in 15, and Ireland one in 26.3. Ireland has furnished 170,000 men—3.8 per cent of her population.

India, Africa, and other dependencies have contributed 1,000,000 native laborers and "specials" to the allied armies, the dispatch states.

Statistics complete until the beginning of the present drive, show that troops from England and Wales, which constitute 70 per cent of the men on the fighting lines, suffered 76 per cent of the casualties. Scotland, with 8 per cent of the active fighters, bore 10 per cent, while the dominions and colonies, with 16 per cent of the fighting force, bore 8 per cent of the casualties.

Irish troops—6 per cent of the fighting force—suffered 6 per cent of casualties.

WHISKY JUMPS IN PRICE.

Shorty Sells for $3.50 Pint in Memphis While Tree Top Tall is Offered For $6.

Memphis, Tenn., April 20.—Here are the latest "whiskey" quotations in Memphis: Half man (half pint), $2.00; shorty (pint), $3.50; tree top tall (quart), $6.00; "Jake" (Jamaica ginger), $1.00.

Of the four, "shorty" is the most popular. Jamaica ginger is ninety-eight per cent alcohol and four ounces are bought for a dollar. It is popular with the "hard drinkers," but has a "disagreeable" effect on the eyes. Those who indulge freely for any length of time become blind. The names "half-man," "shorty" and "tree top tall" were originally used by bootleggers to prevent officers of the law understanding what they were discussing. But the officers "caught on" and the names are still used. Bootleggers, who employ automobiles, drive through the streets sounding a certain number of blasts of the horn to advise the thirsty that a supply has been received.

PLEASE PUT IT BACK

When you finish with a telephone conversation, please take care to put the receiver back on the hook. If you leave it off, you put the whole line out of commission. Nobody on the line can make or receive a call. When this happens on a party line where there are several subscribers, you can see what serious results it may bring about.

Somebody may want to get a doctor and cannot because another subscriber's receiver is off the hook. Somebody else may want to make an important business call and be held up for the same reason, and still another person may be obliged to walk several miles because the telephone line is out.

Leaving the receiver off the hook may seem only a little thing, but it is a big thing to others who want to use the line, or to somebody who is trying to call you.
